SPEAKER AND WORDSHIP LEADER

Jenness Park is excited to host Kellye Cash for its 2018 Mother Daughter Retreat. Kellye learned early in her life to be flexible in a number of environments since she was the daughter of a U.S. Navy fighter pilot who took their family all over the country. In 1987 Kellye Cash had the unique opportunity of demonstrating her Christian faith while running for and achieving the title of Miss America. Following numerous civic engagements during her year as Miss America, Cash attended college and began a career as a Christian music artist and speaker. She made appearances on "The Today Show" and "Good Morning America." She has performed with her uncle, Johnny Cash, and has recorded a number of CDs. Kelley currently lives in Milan, Tennessee with her husband Todd Sheppard, a high school teacher and volleyball coach. The couple has three children: Brady (23), Cassidy (21), and Tatum (16). Kellye is currently the Music Ministry Assistant at First Baptist church of Milan and is a fitness instructor for the Milan Y. Additionally Kellye teaches private piano and voice and coaches for a creative problem solving competition.
